

Press Text - Ultima Radio

The five members, all from Graz, got together in 2014 and after a short creative period they released their first, self-titled EP in the following year. In following spring, the band contributed a song to the soundtrack of the play "Das Lächeln des Gottes", directed by Zdravko Haderlap, and published two Split EP's called Mapale (Colours of Monochrome) and Reciprocity (Witchrider), of which the latter was released on Fuzzorama-Records. In September 2017, the band released their adventurous debut-album "A Thousand Shapes", which nonchalantly transcends the boundary of the Stoner Rock genre but still remains in its orbit. The album was very well received by the Austrian media (FM4, Volume, redbull.at, Soundportal, Kleine Zeitung, etc.) and also attracted considerable attention beyond the Austrian borders (Stonerrock.eu, Stoned Meadow of Doom, etc.).

Originally emerging from Stoner Rock, Ultima Radio combines a variety of aspects in order to define their very own style: eccentrically and deliberately they wander through the Crossover of the 90's, Nu-Metal of the 00's as well as numerous other styles and reinterpret them skillfully and competently, all combined with socio-critical messages expressed through an unusually exotic singing voice. From powerful to impulsive drum beats and heavy to sentimental guitar riffs, the instruments accompany the singer through brute and massive, but also calm and gentle compositions.

Ultima Radio: Stoner Rock and tonal diversity, now merged into a well-working symbiosis. A thrilling and intense live-performance that has so far been performed and praised in about 100 shows throughout Austria, Germany, Switzerland, Slovenia, Slovakia and the Czech Republic.
